Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers!

May Day was colorful and well attended by patrons. Devotionals were led by the Rev. R. Q. Lawing. Dr. Franklin Jones then spoke to the assembled group. Superintendent J. A. Burke was present, spoke, and witnessed a portion of the program. The health play, dances, and May pole wraps were well done. Each county school participated.

Tuesday, May 8, the baseball team journeyed to Bedford to play Susie Gibson High School. On Friday, May 11, we play Campbell County High School here. Our team has made a good showing this year.

Monday evening, May 7, the County Teachers Association held its last meeting of the year. A very good year was reported. On May 30, the teachers' social will be held at the residence of Mrs. Ora W. Smith.

Everyone is talking about the end of the school year - and how soon the finals will be. Senior honor students are getting their speeches written for Commencement. We will be very busy from now until June 6.

The Student Council representatives who attended the State Meeting of the Student Councils at Hampton Institute last Friday and Saturday reported a very good meeting. The state meeting will be held here next year.

Until next week, our thought: "Knowledge is the treasure, but judgment is the treasurer of the wise man."
